Ekici UF Feta Cheese released! The newest way of cheese; Slice it or spread it on the bread and eat it! Ekici UF Feta Cheese released! Turkey's cheese specialist Ekici Peynir added a new one to its ranges one more delicious than the other. Ekici Peynir presented Ekici Feta Cheese to the taste of the consumers who are looking for a different and pleasing taste. Ekici Feta Cheese will be irreplaceable for the tables with its multiple areas of usage and unique consistence. Loved and consumed for a long time in Europe, UF Feta cheese is a different cheese category that we have recently met in our country. It is obtained from condensed milk by filtering it through the special filtering technique (ultrafiltration method). So, it has an excellent consistent structure and taste. The favourite cheese of breakfasts; it is dissolved in the mouth, gives happiness. Introducing innovative cheese types besides its traditional products to our breakfast tables, Ekici creates a pleasing alternative with the cottage cheese for those who are looking for a different taste in the classically consumed types.
